

MARK SULLIVAN TO SPEAK HERE MONDAY

Noted Journalist Comes to Tulsa as Special Guest of Community Lyceum at H. S. Auditorium

Mark Sullivan is coming to Tulsa Monday night to speak on questions of international concern. To readers of the Tulsa Weekly, Mark Sullivan has been the editor of this journal which has done so much to shape the opinion of the American people.

In the capacity of reporter and editor this genius of the news-world has watched Congress and the national government each day by day and probably has intimate personal acquaintance with more public men than any other person in America. He not only knows the news of the week, but its relation to the past and future.

Sullivan was the distinguished journalist who reported the events of the peace conference and stands as the one figure capable of doing this night before the members of the community here under the auspices of the speakers' names under the auspices of the community here and will speak in the high school auditorium. This is a general speaker and the ticket price of admission will be 50 cents. Single admissions will be 1. Tickets will be on sale Saturday for holders of season tickets and if sealing capacity is left after this meeting, no additional tickets will be on sale.

One Killed, One Hurt In Fort Smith Collision

Special to The World.
FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 6.—Miss Mamie Turner, 17 years old, of this city was killed, and Mrs. Grace Morrison of Menlo, Ark., was injured tonight when an auto in which they were riding was hit by a heavy touring car driven by Miss Brown, 14, years old.

North Hit By Coal Strike.
The coal strike is having its effect in the north, according to J. Burr Gibbons, president of the Industrial company, who returned Monday from a business trip to Chicago, St. Louis and other northern cities. "With the winter coming on the people are very apprehensive concerning the fuel situation," said Mr. Gibbons.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mrs. John Rogers and Miss Doris Stevens, social leaders and members of the party are the trio who "advise the world" upon woman's manipulation, who will lead the fight for the rule of women again—if not her supremacy—in all things.

Mrs. Belmont frankly asserted today that women will force the reforms they want by the vote of women for women candidates only. Mrs. Rogers said she foresees a complete change in the whole social system within the next 20 years and she believes women will begin to accomplish the revolution through their "moral force." Mrs. Rogers, who announced herself to be a pacifist, hopes for a "bloodless" upheaval. Miss Stevens, one of the most beautiful in New York and the keenest idealist of the woman's party, holds perhaps the most radical views of the three. "The social fabric is rotten today," she said today and the predicts the overthrow of a "crumbling, inadequate government" by the influence of women on the industrial field.

TO FIGHT PROHIBITION

Governor-Elect of New Jersey Announces Purpose to Prevent Enforcement If It Is Possible.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 6.—Edward L. Edwards announced today that he would use all lawful methods to prevent prohibition in New Jersey.

"For its enforcement by the federal government I shall not be responsible," he said. "I construe my election as an indication of the feelings of the people of this state concerning the new prohibition. They are unequivocally opposed to it. Holding their mandate I shall use all the lawful methods to prevent violation of the sovereignty of the people. What I shall do will depend on subsequent legislation. This congress has determined that one-half of one per cent of alcohol makes a drink intoxicating. The next congress may decide on 10 per cent. I shall ask the best legal advice as to the power of New Jersey in concurrent legislation."

Bills Opened.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The House bill received by the Senate department of the purchases of the equipments of the National Guard Chippewa, National guard was introduced by Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg. The bill, introduced by Senator Vandenberg, who offered $150,000 for all the properties constructed by the government. The second highest bid was $134,500, of the Buckle Company, Chicago. Electric Brothers, New York City, bid $10,000.

Four Sailors Are Drowned.
NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 6.—Four sailors were drowning today when a small boat containing nine men from the steamer Long Island during a gale in Narragansett Bay. Seaman Arthur H. Stevens was drowned at the first attempt to save him, which great sea was running. Four others were taken from the water after a hard hour's battle with the waves. Search for the missing was continued to night.

This Negro's Days Are Numbered; Black Hands Are Close on His Life

Arkansas Jury Lets One Go But Convict Ten More—Seven of 54 Found Guilty Will Die.

"We are going to get you if we have to shoot you accidentally," said a letter received by Herman Terpene, a negro who took the "black hand" offensive in county attorney for advice. Terpene is evidently believed by the writer, presumably a negro, to be the "black sheep" in the matter of informants offered to the prosecution. The letter, dated Nov. 4, follows:

"I am writing to you in a crate, trying of a coffin at the end of the condemned.

Herman Terpene: You just better let us stitching alone. We are on to you we are going to get out and have you see no peace until you get what comes to you. We know you are stealing clothes yourself and selling them. We know you have been working for us. We are going to get you if we have to shoot you accidentally. It won't be long so ask God for forgiveness. It might be dynamite and blow you up but your down set out now. We have got a gang ready now and will get you. Any other time we will burn you out. This is time is going that means business so be poised to take what comes."

Arkansas Jury Lets One Go But Convict Ten More—Seven of 54 Found Guilty Will Die.

JOSEPH MOLZON, who has been present at the Moersch conference in Leipzig, will speak at the M. E. church south in Memphis on Oct. 1.

HELENA, Ark., Nov. 6.—With 19 negroes convicted after pleading guilty and one acquitted on charges of night riding in Phillips county, circuit court today in connection with the uprising near Elaine, the early part of October, less progress than expected was made in the case of the negroes going out of the district. The prosecution announced it expects to complete the trials by Dec. 1.

The negro acquitted today, George Morgan, was the only one of the 11 to plead not guilty. His was the first acquittal since the trials began Monday. Seven of the other negroes were sentenced to serve one year in the penitentiary and the other three were assessed terms of three years each.

Convicted today brought the number to 54, seven of whom were sentenced to death in the electric chair while the others received prison sentences ranging from one to 21 years. It was announced that all negroes under sentence will be taken to the state penitentiary at Little Rock Saturday.

Nearly all of the negroes who were placed on the gallows and the others admitted they were members of the Progressive Farmers' and Household Union of America. One witness, who declared he was not a member of the union, said he borrowed a gun the day of the disorder because he "was afraid members of the union would shoot him."

AT THE MEETING of the business boys' club at the Hotel Wadsworth, last evening, was initiated Robert Gossell, Edward Chase, Edmund Hugel, George Hinckley, Leslie Wilson and Hobart Kennedy. Vaughn Herford was elected to the presidency, and taking the place of Vernon Stiles, resigned.

BONDS TO HIGH COURT SAYS COAL ACTION UNWISE

Governor Thinks Government Should Have Adopted Better Way.

PITTSBURG, Kan., Nov. 6.—A tribunal to have considered the controversy between the coal miners and the operators, not forgetting the miners of the mining districts of the country, would have been far better than a drive against the miners, Governor W. L. Harding of Iowa, said here this morning. An executive is here to make several addresses in connection with the action of the Kansas State Teachers' association.

"I am not criticizing the federal government," Governor Harding said. "But the miners feel that the course followed has been unfair in placing the entire responsibility on them. They have been better to the miners than the operators. That is why the miners are organized and able to take care of themselves. The public almost helpless. That these two organizations are combining to act in concert against the public is not impossible. The operators maintain that the wartime regulations continue and the wage contract remain in force. But they have come out from under the price fixing which was one phase of the wartime regulations and have raised the price of coal."

Seven reasons why young men come to this store for clothes

OF course there's more than seven reasons for the position this store occupies with the young men of Tulsa, but we can't give all of them here now. First is the matter of style in which we have no competition. Then the quality of our goods, the skillful tailoring, the beauty of the fabrics, the richness of the shades, the newness of the patterns. The moderate prices find favor too.

TAKEN all in all there isn't much argument possible when it comes to young men's clothes. Operating as we do the largest clothing business in Oklahoma we enjoy many advantages no other store has. But the clothes are better arguments than anything we can say about them. Come today for your fall clothes.
